wood flooring and are suitable for use for their intended purpose.

3. Warranty terms and conditions

The customer is responsible for ensuring that the installation site is properly prepared according to FLOORCO's guidelines. Any issues arising from failure to meet these preparation requirements will void the warranty. FLOORCO is not responsible for damages resulting from improper maintenance or unauthorized modifications.

3.1. This warranty is only valid if the Purchaser notifies the Guarantor of the alleged defect before the warranty period expires.

3.2. In order for the Product to be covered by the warranty, it is necessary to follow the rules and recommendations concerning storage, installation, care and operation of the Product.

3.3. The basis to exercise the rights provided for in this warranty is the proof of purchase of the Product.

3.4. It is recommended that the Product is installed by qualified professionals, who have the appropriate equipment and parquet laying knowledge.

3.5. This warranty applies exclusively to the original Purchaser. However, this warranty does not exclude or limit any rights the final consumer may have under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 (CGA). These statutory rights apply regardless of this warranty. Please note that when flooring products are purchased for business purposes, the CGA does not apply.

3.6. The Purchaser undertakes to follow the installation, care and maintenance instructions for Engineered wood flooring .

3.7. The Purchaser and the Installer are liable for inspecting the Product prior to its installation in accordance with the industry guidelines, in particular for checking: the type of finish, type of collections and dimensions in relation to the purchase order and for checking for any visible defects. The Guarantor shall not be liable in case of installation of the Product with visible defects or the Product inconsistent with the Purchaser's purchase order.

4. Notice

4.1. These warranties, which begin from the date of purchase, apply to products used in dry residential applications.

4.2. This limited warranty is valid only in NEW ZEALAND The warranty is not transferable. It extends only to the original retail consumer.

4.3. Engineered wood flooring is a natural product that will continue to expand and contract during seasonal and temperature changes. Products may experience separation between boards when properly unacclimated and installed. If separations do occur, they are not covered by this warranty.

4.4. Natural wood characteristics such as mineral streaks, small knots, grain variations, etc. are normal characteristics and are not considered as defects. No two pieces of wood are the same and color or other variations will occur. We do not guarantee against natural variations, or the normal difference between color samples or photographs and coolers of installed floors.

4.5. the Goods must be acclimatized on the site where they are to be installed, prior to their installation, as per the manufacturer's recommendations. Failure to do so can void any warranty provided to the Client.

4.6 Using a steam mop (or similar cleaning tools) will void the warranty, as the steam mop can quickly alter the environment in which the floor is used. Please make sure not to use a steam mop!

4.7 Hot cooking oil and red wine need to be cleaned up as soon as possible, as leaving them for more than 4 hours can result in stains. This can create difficulties in cleaning the floor.
